Note 2:

Wednesday 2nd March 2022 (21 days prior to the date of the Championship) is the latest date for any removal of nominated lifters, cancellation of booked hotel rooms or change in the number of ordered banquet tickets. If not cancelled in time, federations have to pay the reserved hotel rooms (if the hotel require such payment), the participation fee, the doping fee and the banquet fee for all lifters and officials specified in the final nomination form.

For referees Wednesday 9th March 2022 (14 days prior to the date of the Championship) is the latest day for changes of categories for which referee has been allocated in the final nomination (published at www.europowerlifting.org). Any changes requested by the referees after this date will cause a fine of 100 Euro! (EPF BL 105.13.2) However, federations may allocate duties between their own referees latest at the technical meeting without any fine.

Any nation, participating in European Championships with at least 3 lifters, must include at least one international referee. If more than 14 lifters from one nation take part, at least 2 referees must be included. Failure to meet this specification imposes a fine of 500€ for each missing referee. All nominated referees attending a championship, must be available for at least two days. (see: EPF BL 105.13 and IPF Technical Rules, chapter - Referees, page 31, paragraph 17).

It is the responsibility of each Federation to confirm in the final nomination in which categories their referees will be available or cancel the referees who will not participate in the Championships.

All referees nominated at the time of the final nomination will be awarded referee duties by the EPF Technical Committee Chairman (TC Chairman) and the referee list will be published at the EPF website (Referees/Jury under Upcoming Events). All federations/referees must control this list and if they do not agree, they must immediately contact the TC Chairman for corrections.

Important Items to Remember:

Preliminary nominations are done by each federation by the IPF Electronic Nomination System. In additions, preliminary nomination forms must be sent to the Meet director and the EPF Championship Secretary not later than 60 days before the date of the Championship. Final nominations must be submitted no later than 21 days before the date of the Championship and must include only names from the preliminary nomination (i.e. only lifters from the preliminary nomination can be replaced by a substitute. No new nominations will be accepted).

According to Technical Rules [Page 4, item 7] at the final nomination you must define which athletes will take part in the championship. At the Technical meeting you can only delete athletes from your final nomination. No more change by weight class of any athlete is possible. The final nomination is valid for the competition.

Changes may occur to the timetable of events. All changes will take place at the technical meeting. If the organizer does not receive a confirmed cancellation of hotel rooms latest 21 days prior to the championship, all hotel costs will be the responsibility of nominated lifters and officials. The same applies to participation and anti-doping fees (IPF-By-Laws 105.5.2).

All athletes, coaches, referees and officials from each federation must book their rooms by the organizer and must stay in the official hotel during the entire time in attendance of the championship. If athletes, coaches, referees or officials do not stay in the official hotel during the entire time in attendance of the championship, they will be obliged to pay an administration fee of € 100 per person to the organizer. Failure to comply will have the effect that they will not receive accreditation and will be excluded from that championship (IPF By-laws 105.4.4).

Indemnity & Insurance: All participating federations and its delegated athletes and officials agree to indemnity and not hold the organizing committee accountable for and against any claims for personal injury, financial loss, death or property damage, in any form, arising out of or in any way resulting from the participation in, postponement or cancellation of the said European University Cup.

All delegate members must have a valid incident and health insurance policy. The Organiser and the IPF/ EPF will not incur any expenses for a doctor or stay in hospital. We recommend a travel insurance for covering loss of luggage, delayed flight, sickness, accidents, thefts etc.”

Important Competition Guidelines:

The European University Cup will be structured and scored as follows:

1. The competition will be set using the classic / raw lifting style.
2. Each National Federation may nominate up to TEN (10) universities in the men’s category and TEN (10) universities in the women’s category. The men’s team may consist of 8 lifters and the women’s team may consist of 8 lifters.
3. The best three universities for both men and women will receive team awards.
4. Team scoring will be determined by calculating the scores of the best five for men and for women for each university (12, 9, 8, 7...)
5. EPF follows the rules of FISU and only the competitors who satisfy the following conditions may take part in a FISU European University Championships:
 - a) Be a member of the national Federation they represent.
 - b) Be at least 17 and less than 25 years of age on January 1st in the year of the event. For 2022, athletes must be born between 01/01/1997 and 31/12/2005.
 - c) Meet the conditions laid down under FISU Art. 5.2.

Art. 5.2

Only the following may participate as competitors in a FISU European University Championship:

- a) Students who are currently officially registered as proceeding towards a degree or diploma at a university or similar institute whose status is recognised by the appropriate national academic authority of their country;
 - b) Former students of the institutions mentioned in a) who have obtained their academic degree or diploma in the year preceding the event.
6. The standard weight classes for both men and women will be used.
 7. Medals will be awarded in the individual disciplines — Squat, Bench Press and Deadlift as well as in the overall.
 8. Maximum two athletes of each sex from each university can be nominated for each weight class.

EUSA (European University Students Association) has signed a MOU with EPF and supports the organization of the EPF European Students cup. Representatives from EUSA will be present during the cup.
